of the village may be paid for the use of the temple of Srinivasaswami established in that village.

Reply of Government.—To the Muzrai Department for investigation.

Subject No. 244.

Muzrai duties connected with the Sub-division.

Messrs. Amble Anniah Pandit and D. Narasimhaiya.

Summary of discussion.—The Special Sub-Division Officer, Chamrajnagar Sub-Division, may be authorized to do the Muzrai duties also relating to his Sub-Division.

Reply of Government.—Disposed of under General Subject No. 47. Noted.

Subject No. 245.

Location of an Assistant Commissioner's Office at Hunsur.

Messrs. Amble Anniah Pandit and D. Narasimhaiya.

Summary of discussion.—The taluks of Heggaddevankote, Yedatore and Hunsur may be formed into a Subdivision with head-quarters at Hunsur.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

Subject No. 246.

Levy of tolls on the Yedatore bridge.

Messrs. Amble Anniah Pandit and D. Narasimhaiya.

Summary of discussion.—At present a toll of four annas is being levied on every two-wheeled carriage or cart. A fee of two annas only may be ordered to be levied on every single-bullock cart as also on every manure cart. It is further requested that the carts of raiyats cultivating lands within a radius of three miles from the bridge be exempted from payment of tolls.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the Deputy Commissioner for report.

Subject No. 247.

Vacant sites at Yedatore. Grantees to be compelled to build houses on sites to be selected by the Deputy Commissioner.

Messrs. Amble Anniah Pandit and D. Narasimhaiya.

Summary of discussion.—There are about 28 vacant sites in the Agrahar establishment at Yedatore granted by His Highness the late Krishnaraja Wadayar. It is requested that the grantees concerned may be compelled to build residences on sites to be selected by the Deputy Commissioner so as to enable them to enjoy the vrittis or other endowments made for their maintenance.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the Deputy Commissioner for enquiry.

Subject No. 248.

Agraharam residences to be tenanted only by Brahmans.

Messrs. Amble Anniah Pandit and D. Narasimhaiya.

Summary of discussion.—The Brahman residences comprising the Agrahar established at Yedatore by His Highness the late Krishnaraj Wadayar are at present tenanted by other than Brahmans. This is opposed to the terms of the sannad under which the grant was made. A definite ruling may be made prohibiting occupation of such Agraharam residences by other than Brahmans.

Subject No. 249.

A road from Ramasamudra to Honganur.

Messrs. Amble Anniah Pandit and D. Narasimhaiya.

Summary of discussion.—The country track leading from Ramasamudra to Honganur is unsuited for traffic. A road may be made from Ramasamudra to Honganur, the raiyats being required to do the necessary earthwork and the construction of tunnels etc., undertaken at the cost of Government. Such funds as are sanctioned every year may be utilized for complete repairs of any possible portion of the road, instead of being spent on drains by the side of the road.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the President, Local Fund Board.

Subject No. 250
A Musafirkhana or a Travellers' Bungalow at Sargur.
Mr. D. Narasimhaiya.

Summary of discussion.—Three hoblies of the Chamrajnagar Taluk lie beyond the Honnuholé river, and Government Officers inspecting these parts, as also travellers, are put to inconvenience for want of accommodation. A Musafirkhana or a Travellers' Bungalow may be constructed near Sargur, which is situated at the centre of the three hoblies referred to above.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the President, Local Fund Board.

Subject No. 251.
Railing the Bendravadi tank bund.
Mr. D. Narasimhaiya.

Summary of discussion.—There is much traffic of goods and passengers during nights on the Chamrajnagar-Nanjangud road, which runs on the Bendravadi tank bund, and the same is not protected by rails. The bund may be railed to afford safety to the travelling public.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the President, Local Fund Board.

Subject No. 252.
Gomal lands.
Mr. D. Narasimhaiya.

Summary of discussion.—Only a limited area of gomal land is reserved for some villages in the Chamrajnagar Taluk, while no such reservation is made in favor of the villages situated in the northern and southern limits of the kasba hobli and the whole of the Haradanahalli and Kagalvadi hoblies. The cattle of these villages are entirely depending on the pasture of the District Forest. Now that the same has been reserved for the use of the Government Amrut Mahal cattle, it is requested that a portion of the District Forest may be thrown open for the use of raiyats' cattle.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

Subject No. 253.
The shifting of a toll-gate.
Messrs. D. Narasimhaiya and Amble Anniah Pandit.

Summary of discussion.—It is notified in the Mysore Gazette that the toll station on the Satyamangala-Chamrajnagar road is to be established on the bank of the Suvarnavati river at the frontier of His Majesty's Territories. At present the contractor levies tolls at a place near Venkataiyana chattra, 15 miles on this side of the said river (from the British frontier), whereby the carts proceeding beyond the said chattra to their destination within the Mysore frontier are unnecessarily subjected to payment of tolls. The toll is also levied on carts returning within 24 hours and on manure carts, contrary to Government orders. It is requested that orders may be issued for the Toll Station being established on the bank of the Suvarnavati river as notified in the Gazette and for levy of tolls according to the standing orders of Government.

Reply of Government.—Referred to the President, Local Fund Board.

Subject No. 254.
Stone bandhs to be used in lieu of earthen mounds on wet lands on either side of the river Kapila.
Mr. Chikka Puttasami Chetty.

Summary of discussion.—The earthen bandhs put up in the several wet lands on either side of the Kapila river in the Nanjangud Taluk are being washed away by floods in the
